HOSA WEEK is HERE! HOSA stands for Health Occupations Students Association. It is an organization for future Healthcare Professionals. It is the only student health occupations association that is recognized by the US Govt. If you are thinking of going into any type of healthcare field, this is the organization you need to belong to. To celebrate HOSA, the following events have been planned:

Monday: Dress like a health professional (nurse, doctor, vet, EMT, etc.)

Tuesday: Fake an injury day

Wednesday: Blood Drive, Wear Red and come listen to guest speaker Dr. Bartholomew, a pediatrician, at lunch in the library.

Thursday: Dress up like a superhero!

Friday: Healthy is Happy! write notes to young patients at Primary Children's Hospital @ lunch

If you dress up, come to Mrs. Caras' classroom C-7 and get a treat

HOSA Blood Drive: Please support the blood drive! Blood banks are in tremendous need right now. Share this with your friends, family, and community. If you're a student, you must have your parent/guardian sign a permission slip. These are available in the front office and Mrs. Caras' room C-7. Return the signed permission slip to Mrs. Caras and sign up for a time to donate. WE NEED YOU! :)

When: February 28, 2018

Graduation Information: Last week seniors were given information about ordering their cap and gown. Orders can be placed at <http://higrad.com>. Orders must be placed by March 30th; late fees will be assessed after February 28th.

Chromebooks: There are old Chromebooks for sale for $25 each in the finance office. Only parents may purchase the Chromebooks; we are not allowed to sell them to students. There is a one Chromebook per family limit at this time. Those who purchase a Chromebook will need to sign an As-Is Contract.

Junior ACT Test: On March 6th, all juniors will be given the opportunity to take the ACT for free. This will be held during the regular school day with normal classes not being held. Testing will begin in place of first period at 7:55. This test administration will be done online and will include the writing section of the ACT. We would strongly encourage all Juniors to prepare well for this opportunity as a good score can help open doors to college and scholarship opportunities. For assistance on preparing for the ACT online please click here.

An email will be sent to parents with additional information. Seniors and Sophomores will not have school that day. Seniors who have not passed the civics test, which is required for graduation, must come to school to complete the test on March 6th.

Detention Credit: Students who attend one of the Nebo School District Mental Health Awareness Nights can receive 3 hours of detention credit.
